

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 1859.

Loral Matters.

Tuesday Morning, 11: March 1, 1859.
All persons are requested not to purchase papers from our regular carriers. The papers do not belong to them; they have no authority to sell, and every sale by them is a fraud upon us, and a cheat upon our subscribers.

For Congress.

Senators and Representatives are requested to subscribe to the paper in the Lower House of the State Convention.

J. E. C. CUSHIN.

You persons.—Workmen are busy engaged in putting up a new bridge over the bayou on Linden Street.

Gates Way.—In many places the leaves newly raised or repaired, before us, have given way, and much injury is being sustained.

Our telegraph column will be continued to contain matters of general interest this evening, to which we especially refer the reader.

To Correspondents.—We intend to communicate with our friends correspondents in a few days.

THANKS.—For the papers you thank H. J. Smith, of the People, Ed. Halliday, of the Press, Adams, and the officers of the Legion.

Anxious.—The Cincinnati packet boat Memphis came to her landing at the foot of Court street on Sunday, she aground, but her freight was removed yesterday the sand was washed out.

PACIFIC.—The great subject of conversation, just now, among the fashionable and the loves of music, the concert of Friday night, when the bewitching American with its appellation.

ELIZA BOOTH.—The great American tragedian, visited Tyle & Co's gallery, yesterday, and sat for a likeness. It is universally known the best portrait artist of man—on exhibition opposite Old Fellow's Hall.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. E. L. Jackson, Agent for Robert's Piano Company. The piano is now in exhibition at the Green Room, on Shady street, and country rights may be had by mail.

EDWARD G. LOCKE & CO. will make a closing sale, today, at 10 o'clock, of Sheet Plate Ware. The stock on hand will be closed on regularities of the cargo. The ladies were in attendance yesterday, and were the handsomest.

RICHARD'S COFFEE.—The Recorder has eighteen cases yesterday. Plates were offered to the public at $1.00, dollars, of which fifty were paid in cash the rest will be worked out on the spot.

INTERIOR SMOKING TOBACCO.—Our friends Collier, Clegg & Co., importers of the smoking tobacco, have on hand, an splendid article of smoking tobacco, which they are anxious to sell to all gentlemen who are fond of a puff.

ACCIDENT.—As Dr. J. F. Bell was visiting a patient, yesterday, his horse ran off with the buggy, and fell, causing him to fall outside the street. The poor doctor was the child from serious injury; the buggy was smashed.

WEARAGE.—We learn from our excellent wharfmaster, Mr. Wolfe, who is investigating the cause of the accident, that during the month of February, there were 1,000 boxes arrive at this port, paying wharfs of $2,423.60, and 18,000 bushels arrived paying $87.45. Total wharf, $2,601.05.

CHESTER'S, MISSISS.—These ministerial agents of Old Fellow's Hall—right.

W. H. WILKINS.—On Friday last, the Mississippi river at this point was within four feet of being bank full, and rising rapidly.

The reports above are by no means definite.

ALL the world is now in a general state of alarm, it is generally conceded that an overflow of the river is imminent.

The water is rising rapidly at this point.

Business was very active on the levee yesterday, and will arrive to-morrow.

The Memphis Star.—Friday.

THE MEMPHIS STAR.—At the time of the arrival of the steamer, the steamer was about half full, all under fence, heavily situated on the new State Line road, 12 miles from the city, and is susceptible of being divided into three handsome building sites. For terms apply to G. Lock & Co., or to

JOHN THOMAS & DALE.

REPUTATION.—A steamer, recently fitted with acute or chronic rheumatism, neuralgia, pains of the face, jaw, backache and similar pains.

The steamer was called for a week ago yesterday.
